Dear Vicki and Jim,

I have been giving several bridge lunches and working on Christmas cards and raking leaves in the back yard. We are going to have a patio put in and also think of more ways of settling down on the amount of grass to mow.

This Thursday I am having another luncheon and Betty Strandberg will be here. The next day she and her husband are leaving for Spain and they are hoping Mike can join them for Christmas.

We had a very nice Thanksgiving day. We had turkey dinner about four o'clock and then we played bridge until about 10:30.

I hope you didn't get stranded in the big snow storm we had about. There is a lot of snow <sup>here</sup> on all the passes and chains are required.

your desk is back in your room
Jim and that's where it belongs.

Dad is watching a foot-ball game
and when that is over we are going to call Grandpa Carlson and see how he is getting along. I also have a page of Swedish to learn before tomorrow night.

It won't be long now before you leave. You will need something warm on your head too but I'm sure I don't have to worry about you.

I'm going to fix a turkey sandwich
and then go to the post office and mail this letter.

More later.

Love,

Mom.
